

ABSTRACT

The invention is a method and apparatus for scoring a martial arts contest, including targets attached to pads over critical areas which are removed by fair blows of the gloved hand or booted foot.

1. A method for scoring a martial arts contest, comprising the steps of: providing a target attached to a pad over a critical area of a martial artist; and removing the target by a fair blow of the gloved hand or booted foot.